Zacchaeus

Zacchaeus was a short man who took tax money from people and kept some for himself. Jesus was in town. Zacchaeus climbed a tree to see Jesus. Jesus stopped and asked him to come down. Jesus had dinner with him and Zacchaeus became a changed man. He gave back all the money that he had taken from people.

Jesus' Words

"I am the light of the world"

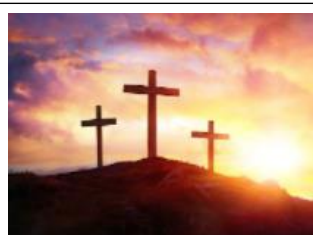

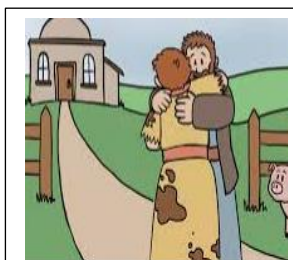

"Love your enemies"

"Love one another as I have loved you"

Prodigal Son

A father had two sons. One son asked him for his share of his father's money. The father gave him his share. The son spent the money on good living and parties. Then the son ran out of money and got a job feeding the pigs. The son said to himself, I will go home and be a servant for my father. When the father saw him, he ran to him with open arms. They celebrated the son's return home.
