Key Facts

- The Bible is a library of 66 books.
- The Old Testament tells the story of the Jewish people and is the foundation of the story of the Christian people in the New Testament.
- The Bible contains different styles of writing (e.g. prophecy, story, prayer, poetry, proverb, psalm, parable and letters).
- The books in the Bible were written at different times and the stories of the different characters spread over hundreds of years.
- The story of Cain and Abel reminds us that resentment and jealousy are two human emotions that can damage relationships between people and be a cause of sin.
- In the story of the manna and water from the rock we discover that God provides for his people.

Old Testament Character Profiles

Esther

A decree goes out saying all the Jews must be killed. Queen Esther faces a moral life and death crisis. Ultimately, she decides to stand up for her people - the Israelites.

Moses

At God's direction, Moses led the Israelites out of the slavery they suffered in Egypt. After their dramatic escape through the Red Sea, the real adventure of trusting God's provision started. As the leader of the Israelites, Moses faced many challenges, some of the biggest which took place upon his arrival to Mount Sinai.
