The Governors of St Mary of the Angels wish to appoint an enthusiastic, excellent Lunchtime Supervisory Assistant. The successful applicant will be supported by Senior Supervisor and other lunchtime supervisors

Job requirements:

Required to join a friendly team of supervisors in assisting with the care and supervision of pupils during the lunchtime break.

This will involve both indoor and outdoor supervision and activities.

All supervisors will be under the direction of the Headteacher and Principal Supervisor.

The successful candidate will be expected to support the aims and strong Catholic ethos of the school.

What we offer:

Helpful hardworking supervisors and staff

Expert advice, training and support

Hungry, polite, friendly children

All applications must be submitted on a CES application form, available via the school office.

The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all to share this commitment. The successful applicant will be subject to an enhanced DBS check and all other relevant safeguarding and safer recruitment checks.
