Dear Jim,

Thank you for the teeth, the glasses and also the lovely wig.

Your friend,

The Giant

The Castle, Cloudy Way

Dear Giant,

How are you? I am delighted that you like your teeth, glasses and wig! You looked really smart last time I saw you. I am sorry that I chopped down the beanstalk. The good news is, that there is another one growing in my garden. I will soon be able to climb up and visit you again.

From Jim

Retelling

Beginning:

Jim woke up and discovered an enormous beanstalk had grown outside his window. Jim started to climb it. At the top he saw a castle. Hope they have cornflakes, Jim thought. He knocked the door and a very old giant opened the door.

Middle:

The giant was very sad because he couldn't see very well, he had lost his hair and his teeth. Jim decided to cheer the giant up. Jim measured the giant's head and went to the oculist to get the giant some glasses. Then he went to the dentist to get the giant some false teeth. After that, Jim went to the wig-maker to get the giant a wig.

Ending:

The giant was very pleased with his new glasses, teeth and wig. So, he rewarded Jim with a large gold coin.
